Around the Square

Many readers have expressed their enjoyment of the feature column, run intermittently by the News, entitled: "A Letter from Athens to the Folks at Home." One who has a special reason for appreciation is Miss Mary Ann Dillon, 31 E. Mira Monte, who works for the Hycon Mfg. Co. as does Lincoln Pittinger, whose wife, Virginia, writes the interesting letters.

She knows how well the articles describe the cities and countryside of Greece, because she was there from last July until a few days before Christmas, also on company business. She says it not only sounds like a wonderful life, but is. She also thinks Hycon is wonderful.

Who wouldn't!

This Easter vacation week for the school kids, when "allee, all-ee outs is free," was officially begun Monday morning with the lusty cry from a six-year-old boy who passed the News office shouting with all his might:

"Oh, boy! Yippee! Wow! Today starts our hollardays."

(That is not a typographical error. When he said HOLLARdays, he wasn't kidding.)

At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the telephone rang and a small voice asked if there were still time to put a cat in the classified ads. Tuesdays and Wednesdays are the busiest, toughest days on the News, because that's when we go to press, so we try to dodge things like this, but when we said brusquely that that the deadline was TUESDAY NOON, the girlish voice quivered—and we melted.

"No, no!" the little girl said. "I mean, do you have a cat lost in the newspaper?"

That did it. So, in contusion, with a deadline breathing down our neck, we listened. Seems that Jean McKesson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKesson, 254 N. Baldwin—she's 12 and goes to Wilson Jr. High—has found somebody's lost cat. Black and white. Green collar, with bells on it.

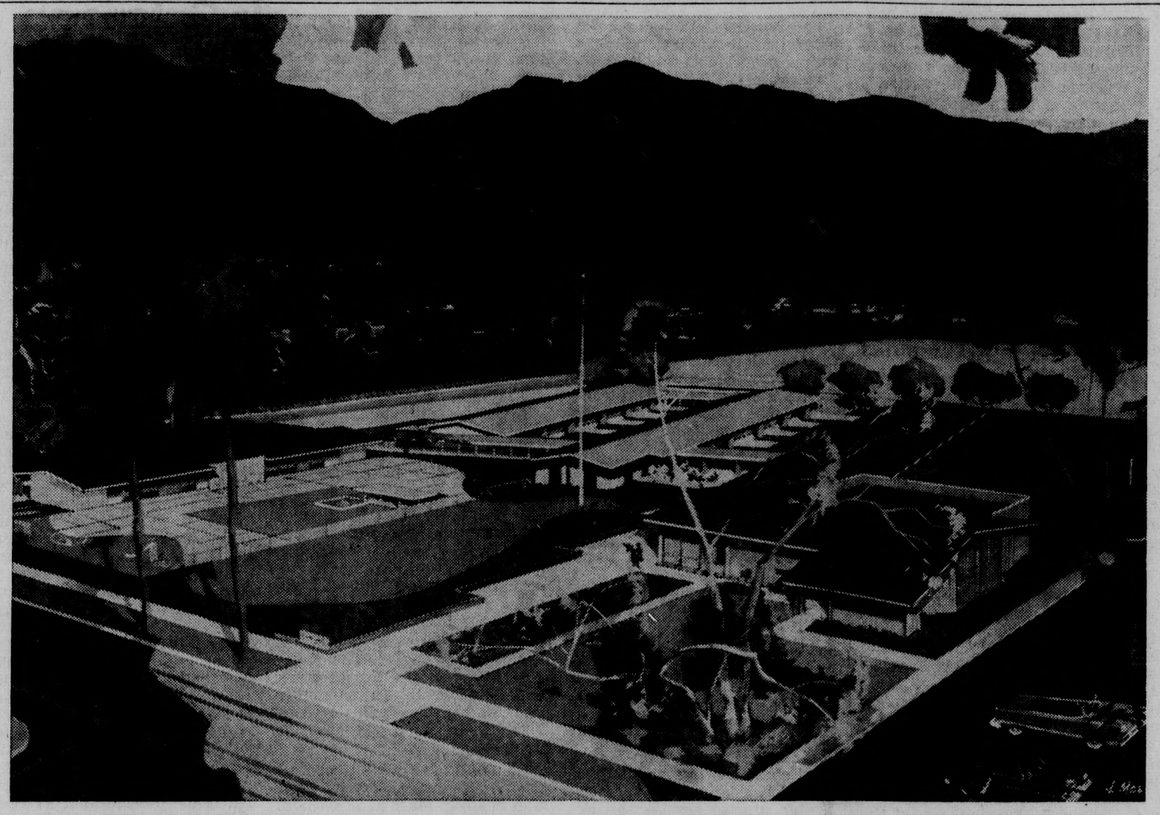

She isn't supposed to keep it in the house, so please hurry—somebody—and claim your cat. (The classified ad page is going to hate us for this!)

Gussie Olliver Cox Dies at 54, March 24

Gussie Olliver Cox, 154 Mt. Trail, died March 24 in a Los Angeles hospital. Cox, who was 54, was retired from the Pasadena Fire Department where he had served for 17 years.

He is survived by his wife, Mary A. Cox of the Sierra Madre address; three daughters, Mrs. Doralee Robinson of Sierra Madre, Mrs. Mary Louise Beers and Miss Barbara Ann Cox, both of Pasadena; one son, Ricky, of Sierra Madre; two sisters and four brothers; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Utter-McKinley Chapel in Pasadena, with Rev. Lloyd P. Kusche, former chaplain of the Pasadena Firt Department, officiating.

IN A SETTING OF SHADE TREES and extensive shrubberies, the new school buildings proposed in the area on the east side of Canon at Highland are planned to provide eight completed classrooms by September, 1954. Construction of the buildings, designed with simplicity and functional beauty, is planned on the site that is known to many as the former Hall estate, offering eight and one-half acres of good drainage that can be utilized without expensive grading. Howard Morgridge, former Sierra Madrean, is the architect and member of the Los Angeles firm, Marsh, Smith, and Powell, who designed the present City School and its annex. Purchase of the site and construction of the buildings are to be finished by the school bond scheduled for voting by Sierra Madreans May 5.

Firemen Prepare 150 Dozen Eggs for Kids' Easter Hunt

The Volunteer Firemen of Sierra Madre are prepared to accommodate 1200 children at their annual Easter Party at City Park Saturday afternoon, after boiling and coloring 150 dozen eggs for the great Easter Egg Hunt beginning in the park at 2 o'clock.

Every child will receive a sack of Easter candy and prizes will be awarded to those who find the special eggs, a dozen of which will be painted gold and another dozen painted silver.

According to Volunteer Fireman Charles Brown, the children will assemble on the Hermosa side of the park where they will be divided into age groups.

The two-to-five-year-olds are to gather at the north end, while those 6 to 10 years of age will meet at the south. The party is limited to children who are 10 years old or younger.

North of the Park House the younger groups will be divided into two classes, with an egg hunt for each. The two- and three-year-olds will be the first to hunt, with a special Easter basket going to each child who finds a golden egg among his loot. A similar hunt will then be offered to the second of the younger groups.

Children from 6 to 10 years of age will be divided for two egg hunts south of the Park House. Any child finding a silver egg along with his varicolored collection will be awarded a silver dollar.

The Volunteer Firemen's Easter and Christmas Tree parties are traditional with the department since its origin. Both events are financed through funds raised by sale of tickets to the "Firemen's Ball" held each Christmas.

Campaign for Red Cross to Be Extended

"Sierra Madre has always met its Red Cross quota,' Mr. E. Waldo Ward, Chairman of the local Red Cross Board, commented today after studying the Fund Drive financial report, "and it will not fail in 1953. We shall extend the collection period so that everyone not contacted as yet will have an opportunity to give."

Miss Clara Sykes, treasurer, reported the Red Cross Fund Campaign lagging on the last day of March. With most of the returns in the figures show that the sum of $5320 has been collected, or 73 per cent of the quota. Last year at this time 91 per cent of '52's quota had been met.

"Please contact the Red Cross Chapter House at 41 South Baldwin, CUster 5-0745, if a volunteer worker has not called on you for your donation," asks Mrs. Leo. H. Meyer, Fund Campaign chairman.

SERVICES FOR RHOADES

Private funeral services were conducted Monday morning for Lester Ira Rhoades at Pasadena Mausoleum.

Order Picket Restraint in Edison Strike

Judge Frank G. Swain of the Los Angeles County Superior Court has issued a temporary restraining order in the case of Southern California Edison Company vs. International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

This order prohibits all picketing at the company's business offices, plants, substations and other facilities, except that lines are allowed provided that pickets march not less than 20 feet apart except when passing.

The order prohibits the picketing of employee's homes and further prohibits pickets or other pickets from injuring persons or destroying property, intimidating or threatening employees and other persons doing business with the company, and enjoins loud and obscene language.

The order set April 6 as the date when the union shall appear and show cause why a preliminary injunction pending trial, shall not be granted.

BEFORE THE 1953 WISTARIA VINE FESTIVAL comes to an end Sunday evening it has been scheduled for a series of glamorous events this afternoon, tomorrow, and Saturday. Among them will be fashion shows featuring many of Sierra Madre's loveliest—along with Pat Murphy, Queen of the Vine Festival, shown with the trophy, and her four princesses, Barbara Wilson, Penny Bell, Jane Lange, and Phyllis Besocke, who appear around her in the order named, with the exception of Miss Besocke whose career as a beauty specialist in Hollywood prevented a camera date.

What is the New School Bond Issue All About . . . . ?

One of the most important school issues in the history of Sierra Madre will be presented for voters' considerations May 5, the date set for the $242,000 school bond election.

The Sierra Madre City School Board of Trustees believes that there is not adequate housing for the increased, and still increasing, student population within the city. They also believe that disappointments in the recent Pasadena school bond election have not helped the situation any.

Because the News believes the voters should be educated as much as possible before going to the polls, it offers herewith the first in a series of articles, released by the Board of Trustees, to be presented between now and voting time for the purpose of explaining the issue to the taxpayers.

In the past seven years Sierra Madre has steadily outgrown its original school plant on Highland and Auburn Avenues at the rate of OVER ONE CLASSROOM PER YEAR. In 1947 the School Board made a survey to forecast enrollment increase five and ten years ahead. These figures were based on material secured from:

Southern Counties Gas Co., California Water & Telephone Co., Sierra Madre City Water Department, Southern California Edison Co., and Residential Building Permits.

The five-year study showed we could expect at least 808 students in kindergarten through eighth grade. (Actual enrollment in 1952 was 851 students—701 here and 150 in Pasadena seventh and eighth grades. This was a variance of 5 per cent over a five-year period.)

In order to meet the immediate 1947 need a bond issue for a new site and a small community school was proposed. One of the sites most desirable, but then unobtainable, was the eleven acres at Highland and Canon Avenues. 'Country Fair' in June Set for Co-op Effort

Delegates of 20 Groups Meet To Plan June Community Fair

Representatives of twenty organizations from Sierra Madre and adjoining communities were dinner guests of the local Lions, V.F.W., and Kiwanis Clubs at the Woman's Club last Friday evening to discuss the forthcoming Country Fair. William Overly, representative of Pan-American Amusement Corporation presented plans for the gala event to be held June 9-14, for the benefit of Sierra Madre's proposed new swimming pool.

According to Overly, complete equipment for the community fair is leased from his corporation. The concessions are operated by the local groups, thus enabling the sponsoring community to retain a larger portion of the proceeds, allowing each organization to realize a modest sum for their treasuries.

Each organization wishing to operate a booth, is to choose a candidate for the queen contest within the next four weeks. Small groups may combine forces. Admission tickets tot he fair are sold by the groups, and are counted as points for their candidates. The winning candidate's organization has its choice of booths, the remainder chosen in order of their standing in the contest. Since some booths are more profitable, this is considered the fairest method of allotting concessions.

There are many prizes as inducements for entering. The winning queen receives a week's vacation for two at Apple Valley Inn, and a gift wardrobe. Winning ticket purchaser is given a trip to Honolulu. All contestants receive valuable merchandise. Each group operating a booth is entitled to retain a portion of the proceeds or donate it to the pool fund. Thus groups outside of Sierra Madre will be encouraged to help swell the pool fund, and still make a profit

'AUNT BEA'S CAFE' BECOMES 'MARY'S'

Aunt Bea's Cafe, recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. George Sneed of 46 E. Highland, has been changed in name to be known in the future as "Mary's Cafe."

The popular little cafe at 24 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, which serves breakfast from 6 a.m. until 11, with luncheons until 2 p.m., will feature the cooking of Mrs. Sneed, whose first name is Mary.

Sneed, who has made alterations in the cafe's interior, was formerly employed in a machine shop in Pasadena. Mrs. Sneed was at one time a ceramics decorator.

Civil Defense Chiefs Called For Training

Chiefs of Sierra Madre's Civil Defense system will meet Wednesday evening, April 8, at 8 o'clock in City Hall, at which time Charles Skutt, who heads the training service division, will intitiate a new training program for the 10 other services.

According to Col. C. R. Gildart, Associate Director of local Civil Defense, the other services are: Fire, Law Enforcement, Utilities, Medical, Evacuation and Welfare, Transportation, Communication, Supply, Radiological, and Warden Service.

Gildart and Fire Chief Jim Heasley recently attended the two-day Defense School, conducted by two representatives of the Federal Civil Defense Administration, at the State Building in Los Angeles March 26 and 27. The six-hour sessions, entitled "Residue Operations," were devoted to a study of the means by which people may best be removed from demolished structures.

Heasley and Gildart will be among those attending the local training service class April S. Col. Owen Marriott, recently appointed by Mayor Henry F. Korsmeier as chief of the Warden Service, replaces Dean Stoddard who has done much to organize the warden system here. New business demands have forced Stoddard to limit his Civil Defense activities temporarily.

Former Editor To New Civil Service Post

Stanley M. Cann, 378 North Craig Ave., Pasadena, has been appointed to the position of public relations representative for the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Department. He placed first in the Civil Service Department's examination for his new post.

Cann, who was editor of the Sierra Madre News for the past three years, will now assist Guy L. Bushby, the Recreation and Park Department's public relations officer.

A 1949 graduate of the University of Southern California School of Journalism, Cann is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity.

DAILY FASHION SHOWS TO BE HELD AT VINE

Daily fashion shows of new spring styles will continue at the 1953 Wistaria Vine Festival today, tomorrow, and Saturday. According to Lorne Pratt, who is managing the Festival, a score of lovely models will exhibit all types of bright garments on the new swimming pool terrace beneath the vine at 1 o'clock and again at 3 in the afternoons.

Medical Site Variance Set By Commission

At the last meeting of Sierra Madre's Planning Commission Dr. George Groth Jr., was granted a variance to extend construction of a proposed Medical Center at 245 W. Sierra Madre boulevard into an R-1 piece of the property for a section of the building, a parking area, and driveways. The majority of the property is in a C-1 zone.

Mrs. Blanche Buie appeared in the hope of furthering her application for a rezoning of the old Sierra Madre Hotel property, 225 N. Lima, to R-3 (multiple residential). Having appeared several times in the last months before the Commission as well as City Council, she and her representatives have been advised to ask for variance to erect an R-2 type type dwelling in an R-1 zone.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan B. Hammers of Pasadena were granted a lot split in their R-1-L zone because their application had been submitted before the R-1-L law was established in their area. They now plan two lots, 88x135 feet each, on the property in the northern section of the city near the joining of Hermosa and Auburn.

The Jewish Community Center, represented by Sam Perlof, asking variance to add rooms for the Sunday School, was slated for a hearing April 23.

J. C. Sengers, 327 SYcamore Place, making a third attempt for a spot zoning of R-2 on his property, was a three-time loser when the Commission denied his request.

LEWIS APPOINTED TO BANKERS GROUP

R. C. Lewis, president of the Bank of Sierra Madre, has been named a member of the Program Committee of the Independent Bankers Association of Southern California, an organization composed of more than 65 community owned and operated banks in the Southland. Announcement of his appointment to the committee has been made by the association's recently elected president, William C. Neary.

Local Delegate to Lumbermen's Meet

Sierra Madre will be represented at the 36th annual Lumbermen's Convention and Trade Show to be held April 7-9 at the Statler Hotel, Los Angeles, it has been disclosed by the sponsoring Southern California Retail Lumber Association, which estimates this year an attendance of more than 2,000.

Attending from Sierra Madre, as delegate, will be Ernest Waterhouse of the E. K. Wood Lumber Co.

Applicants To West Point Or Navy Invited

Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand, 21st Congressional District of California, has announced that he is accepting applications for appointment to the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, New York, and the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland, for entrance in July, 1954, from qualified young men in the 21st Congressional District.

A Civil Service competitive examination will be conducted locally some time during the summer in order that candidates may be selected for these appointments.

Hiestand has suggested that eligible young men between the ages of 17 and 22 should notify him promptly. Letters of application should be addressed to Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand, House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Most recent appointment has been that of Robert S. Cunningham, 655 Berkshire Ave., Pasadena, to the United States Naval Academy, for entrance July, 1953. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cunningham and is a graduate of John Muir College. At the present time he is a student at Pomona College.

Sierra Madre Scouts Invited To Preview of 1953 Jamboree

The Boy Scout Council Jamboree Committee, along with a group of Sierra Madreans, has accepted the invitation of the Mayor and the City Council of Pasadena for a general meeting of the National Jamboree contingent at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium for the evening of Monday, April 6.

Doors will be open at 7:30, the meeting will start promptly at 8 o'clock, and will be concluded by 9:30.

The Jamboree Committee will outline plans and issue all information available on Council participation in the Third National Jamboree slated for July 17-23 at the Irvine Ranch near Balboa. Among the 24 Jamboree Scoutmasters to be introduced will be Ed Oliver, 246 South Sunnyside, who is commissioner for Sierra Madre's Mt. Wilson District.

Other Sierra Madreans invited to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Reg Barrett, Mrs. Ed Oliver, and the 15 Boy Scouts from local troops who are scheduled to attend the Jamboree this summer.

The Scouts from here will become members of Jamboree Troop 24. Because each troop at the Jamboree must represent a unit of 32 members, Scouts from the San Gabriel and La Canada districts will be added to Troop 24 to fill the quota.

Parents and families, and friends of Scouting, are among those invited to the April 6 meeting, at which there will be a display of the new Jamboree tents and uniforms.

St. Rita's to Sell Tickets For 'Knights'

More than 100 tickets have been delivered to St. Rita's Church to be sold for admissions to the "Easter Ball," sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Charities at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium the evening of April 6.

The 45th annual Easter Monday charity ball will feature Leighton Nobel and his orchestra. As usual, the proceeds will go to St. Luke Hospital, the Rancho San Antonio, known as "The Boys Town of the West," along with other national charities.

COME TO Easter CHURCH Services

Welcome New Members at Trinity Church

Rev. Donald H. Ostrander, Trinity Presbyterian Church minister, is urging members of his congregation to attend Good Friday services tomorrow afternoon at either First Baptist or First Methodist Church in Pasadena inasmuch as Trinity is a member of the Pasadena Council of Churches and will be having no services on Friday.

As is customary with Good Friday services, marking the hours Jesus suffered on the Cross, the two designated by Rev. Ostrander will be in progress from 12 o'clock noon to 3 o'clock. The general theme will be "The Claims of Jesus" and will be delineated by seven ministers on the topics: The Bread of Life, The Light of the World, The Door, The Good Shepherd, The Way, The Truth, The Vine.

Candlelight Communion

As previously announced, a special service of candlelight communion at 8 o'clock tonight represents Trinity's observance of Maundy Thursday. This commemorates Christ's Last Supper with his disciples before his trial and crucifixion the following day.

Adult members will be received into church membership at that time, marking the fruition of a recent emphasis on evangelism and visitation program.

Instead of the communion meditation which usually replaces the sermon at Communion services, there will be a brief "Sermon in Scripture" by the pastor. The Junior Choir, under the direction of Botson Korisheli, will sing and the Chancel Choir also will offer special music.

One Easter Service

There will be one main service at Trinity Church on Easter Sunday, this at 11 o'clock. Amplification will be provided in the "Commons Room" and elsewhere in the church for the benefit of an overflow attendance.

The Church School hour will be at 9:30 a.m. and Rev. Ostrander says the children are planning their own services.

DAWN RITES AT VINE

Religious services will be held again this year at dawn, Sunday, 5:45 a.m., under the blooms of Sierra Madre's noted Wistaria Vine, 201 W. Carter. Seating is being provided for an attendance of 400 persons.

Rev. Walter H. Mees, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church of San Gabriel, will conduct the dawn service for the third consecutive year and will speak on the subject, "Witnessing to Life."

There will be special music by two choirs with organ accompaniment.

Wistaria Queen Pat Murphy and her Princesses, Jane Lange, Penny Bell, Barbara Wilson and Phyllis Besocke, will participate.

UNUSUAL RETREAT AT SIERRA MADRE

The Retreat House of the Passionist Fathers, 500 N. Lima, often entertains groups of men over the week-ends larger than the 68 who made the Retreat from March 20 to 22. But seldom does any one group include so many men who are prominent in public life in the city and county of Los Angeles.

Attorneys Martin J. Burke, of Montebello, and J. W. Mullins, Jr., of Los Angeles, gathered a group of 58 attorneys and their friends. These included Judges Clement D. Nye, Frank J. Moroney, Charles B. MacCoy and Thomas J. Cunningham, of the Superior Court, and 31 other lawyers, besides several bankers and businessmen.

There were 15 non-Catholics in the group, including two of the Superior Court judges, and Oscar C. Collins, attorney for the Southern Pacific, and O. L. Hurlburt, advertising manager of the Los Angeles Times.

The Anchor Club, made up of Catholics in the employ of the State and Federal Governments, was represented by 10 members, including James T. Byrne, who organized the group, and Michael D. Fanning, postmaster of the City of Los Angeles.

MAY YOU HAVE A BLESSED EASTER

EASTER MASSES AT ASCENSION WILL CONCLUDE FULL SCHEDULE OF SERVICES

The Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Rev. Harley Gibbs Smith, rector, will conclude its observance of Holy Week with Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and joyous Easter services.

Holy Hour at 8 o'clock tonight will bring to a close the church's Maundy Thursday schedule which opened with the administering of Holy Communion from the Tabernacle at 6:45 a.m. and high mass at 9 a.m. sung by Father Smith and assisted by Rev. Everett Boshard and Rev. Charles I. Fritz as deacon and sub-deacon of the mass.

Observe Good Friday

Tomorrow morning, Good Friday, the Mass of the Presanctified will be sung, preceded by Veneration of the Cross and Reproaches.

Tre Ore services will be in progress from noon until 3 o'clock tomorrow with meditation on the Seven Last Words from the Cross, interspersed with hymns and devotions. Father Smith is asking that the congregation enter and leave the church only during the singing of hymns.

Stations of the Cross will be said at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Bless Paschal Candles

On Holy Saturday the blessing of the Paschal candles, baptism of infants and the first vespers of Easter will take place. Confessions will be heard from 3 to 4 p.m. Good Friday afternoon and at 8:30 o'clock that night and from 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday.

Holy Communion will be administered at all the masses on Easter Day. The masses will be at 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Plants for Children

At the family and children's mass at 9:30 Easter plants will be given to the children of the parish. The St. Cecelia Choir, under the direction of Miss Margaret Dow, has prepared special music appropriate to the season.

Sermons on the Ressurection will be given by Father Smith and Father Bosshard at the 7:30, 9:30 and 11 o'clock masses.

St. Dunistan's augmented choir will sing the Processional and Festival Mass at 11 o'clock.

Easter Day will close at the Church of the Ascension with Festival Vespers and benediction at 5 p.m.

In contrast to the sombre purple of Holy Week and the black of Good Friday, the priests' vestments and the altar hangings will be in the white significant of Easter at the Sunday masses. The sanctuary will be massed with Easter lilies and greens.

Famed Choral Groups to Sing At Rose Bowl

A program of stellar musical features, including two of the nation's best known evangelical glee clubs, and a massed choir of 500 voices from Southland churches, is scheduled for the fifth annual Rose Bowl Easter sunrise service. Speakers for the event will be Evangelist Merv Rosell and Dr. Clarence Roddy.

The hour-long service from 6 to 7 a.m. will be broadcast over Station KHJ.

The interdenominational sponsoring committee announced this week that the famed 45-voice Moody Chorale will sing twice, as well as the Wheaton College Women's Glee Club. Both groups travel many thousands of miles annually in concert engagements.

Moody Chorale

The Chorale, from Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, is presently on a 6,000-mile tour throughout the Southwest and Northern Pacific coast. Its mixed voices were chosen from a student body of almost 1,000. Its director is Don Hustad, who also is president of the National Church Music Fellowship.

The Wheaton College Women's Glee Club, of 37 voices, is directed by Mrs. Mignon Bollman Mackenzie, and has won superlative reviews from music critics. It comes from America's best known interdenominational Christian college, the largest liberal arts college in Illinois.

Dr. Clyde Narramore is chairman of the music committee for the Bowl service and director of the combined choirs who gather from scores of Southland churches.

Cooperation Lauded

Southland choir directors have manifested splendid cooperation, Dr. Narramore reported, and many are anxious that their churches shall have at least a token representation in the massed choir, while other choral groups are participating as a unit. The population migration in Southern California is revealed in a startling way by the personnel of the combined choirs; two-thirds of this year's singers were not in California a year ago, and many of those who sang last year have already moved out of this immediate area.

Additional musical features for the sunrise service will include a trombone fanfare call to worship, the presence of Del Roper at the symphonic carillion during the prelude as well as at the heart of the service, and guest pianists and organists.

Innovation This Year

The call to worship will come at 6 a.m. when six trombones are lifted skyward in the upper tiers of the Bowl, and the combined choirs will burst into the singing of "He Lives."

A new feature of the Bowl service will be an Easter parade, a procession of thousands of Sunday School youth from Southland churches during the congregational singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers," by outstanding athletes, at the conclusion of the service. Leading the procession will be Donn Moomaw, UCLA's All-American linebacker; Bud Schaeffer, basketball whiz from the All-Stars, now a ministerial student at Fuller Theological Seminary: and the California champion basketball team from Pasadena (Nazarene) College, led by its high scorer Bob Hopkins.

"How oft shall my brother sin against me I forgive him? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until seventy times seven." —Matt. 18:21, 22.

Two Easter Services Offered at Bethany

Bethany Church has announced duplicate services for Easter Sunday morning, one at 9:30 and the other at 11 o'clock. The Sunday School classes also will be staggered.

Earlier on Easter morning a cavalcade of cars will leave from the church for the Easter sunrise services at the Rose Bowl.

Two members of Bethany Church, Marilyn and Marjorie Scoville, will appear on the Rose Bowl program playing the marimba and vibraharp.

Another reason for Bethany's special interest in the sunrise services is the fact that Dr. Clarence Roddy, who was speaker at the Bethany Family Conference a year ago, will be one of the principal speakers.

Services Scheduled At Arcadia Church

Arcadia's Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration has announced the following schedule of services from today, Maundy Thursday, through Easter Sunday:

Tonight at 5 o'clock, evening prayer.

Good Friday, tomorrow, antecommunion service at 10 a.m., 12 noon to 3 p.m., three-hour service and preaching of the Passion by Father Ewan.

Easter Day, Holy Eucharist with hymns at 8 a.m.; Lenten mite box presentation service, 9:15 a.m.; Choral Eucharist, 9:30 a.m.; Choral Eucharist and sermon, 11 a.m.

40-Voice Choir In Ontario on Good Friday

Maundy Thursday services tonight, presentation of an oratorio tomorrow night, Good Friday, and a breakfast Easter Sunday morning are high points of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church's Holy Week and Easter program which will be concluded with two worship services later Easter Day morning.

The congregation will meet in the sanctuary at 8 o'clock tonight for the church's traditional Maundy Thursday communion service followed by the Office of Tenebrae.

Back to 4th Century

This entire service, Rev. Carl C. Smith, Jr., pastor, explains, is an adaptation of a fourth century service depicting the last evening of Jesus with his disciples. Symbolic of the disciples' desertion, one by one, the lights of the sanctuary are extinguished until the room is in darkness to remain so until the dawn of Easter morning.

Good Friday night at 8 o'clock the oratorio, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," will be presented by the 40-voice choir under the direction of Stewart Matter. Deane Tack, regular director, will be a soloist as will be Mrs. Nancy Wilcox and Earle Anderson. Mrs. Jean Autrey will be the organist. This presentation is open to the public. There also will be special music by a string ensemble.

Easter Breakfast

Easter breakfast will be served from 7:30 to 9 o'clock Sunday morning in the church by the Pilgrim Fellowship.

The family worship service on Easter Sunday morning will be at 9:30 with music by the Chancel Choir and the Children's Choir. The Chancel Choir will sing at the 11 o'clock worship hour.

At the earlier service the Children's Choir will sing Bixby's "Alleluia, Alleluia" and Norris' "O Bells in the Steeple." The Chancel choir wil sing Calver's "Dawn of Redemption."

The 11 o'clock service will feature, in addition to special music by the Chancel choir, christening of infants and reception of new members. The pastor will deliver the sermons at both services.

FIRST BAPTIST PLANS EASTER SERVICES

The First Baptist Church, 49 S. Baldwin, is anticipating capacity congregations at its three services Sunday when the age-old story of Jesus' Resurrection is retold, according to the pastor, Rev. Roy Reed Gibbs.

At 9:45 the Sunday School will present a special Easter program. Mrs. Lonnie Hall will present the Easter account to the entire church school.

The program will include singing of "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross" and "He Lives" in addition to special songs by boys and girls of the Good News Club of which Mrs. Hall is conductor as well as a deaconess of the church. Mr. Hall, a deacon, will lead in prayer and Mrs. Hall will present "Flannelgraph" stories depicting the Garden of Gethsemane, Jesus Before Pilate, the Crucifixion, the Resurrection and Jesus' Return to Heaven.

The morning worship at 11 a.m. will feature special Easter music by the Gospel Choraleers, the church's newly formed choral group. The entire program will be built around the story of the Resurrection and the pastor's message will be based on Jesus' words to the disciple, Phillip, "Have I been so long with you and yet hast thou not known Me" as recorded in John 14:9.

Two new candidates for church membership will be given the hand of fellowship during this service. The prospective new members are Mrs. Lucille Bailey and Mrs. James Bates.

The evening service will feature more Easter music. There will be the usual evangelistic service and the pastor's message will be entitled, "God's Will Is to Satisfy; Are You Satisfied?"

Nursery accommodations will be provided during all services.

Services Tomorrow at 2

First Baptist Church is among the several in this city observing Good Friday and the service is scheduled for 2 p.m. tomorrow in order that worshippers may be in the Lord's House at approximately the hour of Jesus' death on the cross.

There will be special music and the pastor will present a sermonette entitled, "Viewing the World from Calvary."

Christians of all denominations are invited to attend, according to Rev. Gibbs.

THE EASTER SERVICE 10:30
Junior Choir: "Christ the Lord is Ris'n Today."
Sermon: "The Dawn of a New Day."

EASTER holds out life and hope through its message of Christ's resurrection, a fact which has withstood all attempted denials during the centuries. On Easter morning in Jerusalem, the chief priests resorted to bribes and pledges of security in an attempt to silence the fact of Christ's resurrection. Seven years ago Dr. E. W. Barnes in "The Rise of Christianity" urged that the Christian religion be stripped of "myth and romanticism," in which he included Christ's resurrection.

Yet, again on Sunday Christians throughout the world will observe Easter, the festival which commemorates our Lord's resurrection from the dead. Battering-rams have fallen, but the rock of truth stands. We have a living Lord Jesus Christ! We invite you to worship Him with us! . . . .

Faith Lutheran to Have Good Friday Easter Services

Faith Lutheran Church, currently worshipping in the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., will conduct a Quiet Hour service at 8 p.m. tomorrow, Good Friday. Preparatory to the celebration of the Lord's Supper, Rev. A. Hesse will speak on the theme, "Christ's Breathless Clay."

On Easter Sunday morning at 9:30 the Sunday School and Bible Class departments will be shown slides depicting Biblical accounts of the resurrection.

"The Dawn of a New Day" will be Rev. Hesse's sermon subject at the Easter morning worship service at 10:30. The Junior Choir, under direction of Warren Zelt, will sing an arrangement of the ancient Easter hymn, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."

Special Baptism of Infants Easter at Church of Nazarene

A baptismal service for infants will be held during the Easter morning service of the Church of the Nazarene, Sunday at 11:00 o'clock.

After Easter, during the seven weeks between April 12 and May 25, the Nazarene Sunday school, under the direction of its superintendent, C. W. Bass, will be in an attendance competition with the Nazarene Sunday School at Costa Mesa.

"UNREALITY" TITLE OF LESSON-SERMON

How the scientific understanding of the Bible destroys inharmony is pointed out in the Sunday lesson-sermon entitled "Unreality" in all Christian Science churches, including Sierra Madre's First Church.

The Golden Text is from II Samuel (22:29): "Thou art my lamp, O Lord: and the Lord will lighten my darkness."

The Parable of the Sower from Matthew's Gospel (13:28, 30) is included in the Bible selections. Jesus tells of the householder who, having sown good seed in his field, is told of tares among the wheat. He says, "An enemy hath done this." "Let both grow together until the harvest," commands the householder, "and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "The seed of Truth and the seed of error, of belief and of understanding—yea, the seed of Spirit and the seed of matter—are the wheat and tares which time will separate, the one to be burned, the other to be garnered into heavenly places" (p. 535).

Missionary Speakers Featured at Bethany

The Tuesday program at the Bethany Church will begin at 10:30 a.m. The morning program will feature Mrs. Edith Stokely of the Navajo Gospel Mission in Oraibi, Arizona, who will tell of the undenominational work carried on there by the Stokelys for a quarter of a century in establishing schools, hospitals, clinics, and children's homes.

At 12 o'clock noon, members of the church will share a covered dish luncheon, followed by devotions at 1:20 p.m. led by Mrs. Marshall Welles.

At 2 o'clock the featured speaker will be Dr. Marshall Welles, who with his wife recently returned from many years service in China, Bankok, Siam, and other remote parts of the Far East.

The Welles will be returning to China in the near future.

"The Lord is at hand. In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God."—Phil. 4:5, 6.

NURSERY SCHOOL SUPPORTERS START RUMMAGING NOW FOR SALE MAY 8, 9

Spring housecleaning time is here which means, as well, that its logical aftermath, that national institution, the Rummage Sale, also is in its ascendancy.

Members of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association, indefatigable workers and fund-raisers, are not ones to pass up a good thing and again this year are "rummaging" through their own closets and scrounging from their friends for "merchandise" to be sold on May 8 and 9 at 34 S. Fair Oaks avenue, Pasadena.

Competition doesn't faze these Nursery School people. Each year there always seems to be enough old clothes, old housewares, old toys, furniture and knick-knacks to stock their racks and shelves. There's just no end to the things that can be sold, from the rather battered to the nearly-new.

This doesn't mean, however, that there isn't work to a rummage sale. Donors must be reminded, contributions picked up in ample time, sometimes several trips are necessary, the items sorted, priced and finally displayed.

And the sale co-chairmen, Mrs. Eunice Pitzer and Mrs. Mazie Johnson, are reminding the Nursery School friends and well-wishers they can't possibly have TOO MUCH RUMMAGE to sell!

PARENTS' GROUP PLANS SUPPERS FOR APRIL 10TH

In order that they can get better acquainted and, perhaps, discuss a project to raise funds for school equipment, the parents of the "middle-age" group of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School will have two pot luck suppers Friday night, April 10.

Parents of the Tuesday and Thursday group will gather in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Johnson, 1838 N. El Vista circle. The Monday-Wednesday-Friday group's meeting place will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton S. Dake Jr., 2007 Villa Heights road. There are about 20 families in each group.

In charge of the supper arrangements are Mrs. Charles E. Bartley and Mrs. Mac A. Cason. Attending as guests will be Mrs. Edith Dane, teacher of the group, and Mrs. Marjorie Green, director.

A $10,000 grant for cancer research at the California Institute of Technology has been made by the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund.

PLANS IN MOTION FOR FORMING NEW CATHOLIC COURT

Plans are underway for the organization of a court in this area of the Catholic Daughters of America, said to be the largest Catholic women's organization in the country.

An organization meeting, at which time it is hoped at least 45 women will be on hand as charter members, has been scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 7, in the Holy Angels School auditorium, 400 Huntington Place. Sierra Madre women interested are urged to attend.

The Catholic Daughters of America is not only a religious group, it has been emphasized, for its interests also center on patriotic, civic, social and philanthropic activities. In the Pasadena area, the court maintains a camp in the mountains, Camp Teresita Pines.

The membership for the prospective new court will be drawn from women over 18 years of age from Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Monrovia, Temple City and a portion of San Marino. A junior group will be organized at a later date, according to Mrs. W. C. Stephan, 222 Huntington Place, Arcadia, formerly of Sierra Madre, who is participating in the preliminary organization details.

Mrs. Bernice Stark of Los Angeles, state organization chairman of the Catholic Daughters, will be on hand Tuesday night to conduct the meeting and offer advice.

ROBERTS' RULES ORDER OF DAY AT CLUB

A round table discussion of "Parliamentary Procedure" will take place next Wednesday following the 11 o'clock business meeting of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club in the clubhouse.

Mrs. G. W. Fetzer of Altadena, a past president of the Henry M. Roberts Parliamentary Club of Los Angeles, will be on hand to direct the discussion and to answer questions.

During the preceding business meeting the nominating committee of which Mrs. A. L. Myers is chairman will present its recommendations for the election of officers in May.

After the meeting and parliamentary discussion, luncheon will be served with Mrs. O. R. Haas and Mrs. Percy Kortkamp as co-hostesses.

No events are scheduled for that afternoon but as is customary, the clubhouse will be open and tables available for members and guests who wish to stay on for cards.

Nursery School Staff, Officers Fete Mrs. Dowty

Members of the Community Nursery School staff, women officers of the Nursery School Association and a few special guests gathered Tuesday night for a buffet supper party honoring Mrs. Kermit Dowty who is concluding her duties as staff secretary. The party was held in the home of the Nursery School director, Mrs. Marjorie Green, 383 Sycamore place.

Among those attending were: Mrs. Gerald K. Marugg, Association president, and Mrs. Paul Sheldon, Mrs. James O. Johnson, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Alice Tyson, Mrs. Edith Dane, Mrs. Emily Tempes, Mrs. Charles E. Ross Jr., Mrs. Warren Huth, Mrs. Myrtle Randolph, Mrs. Philip Saurenman, Mrs. Norman Davidson, Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. Green and the guest of honor.

Eastern Star Group To Have Special Guest Monday Night

The Sierra Madre chapter No. 299, Order of Eastern Star, meeting at 8 o'clock Monday night in Masonic Temple, 33 E Sierra Madre boulevard, will have as a special guest Mrs. Genevieve Clark of Arcadia, deputy grand matron of the 64th district. Mrs. Clark will be making her annual official visit that night.

Mrs. Harriet Beard and Frank Marsh are worthy matron and patron, respectively, of the Sierra Madre chapter and are extending an invitation to all visiting Eastern Star members and newcomers to Sierra Madre and nearby communities, to attend. Inactive members also are being specially invited.

Refreshments will be served.

FAMILY SERVICE TO ELECT NEW MEMBERS IN MAY

Board members of Family Service of Sierra Madre have named Charles Skutt, Mrs. Sam Haskins, Jr., and Mrs. George Osborn as a committee to nominate three new board members to be elected at the annual meeting in May.

The three members whose terms have expired are Skutt, Rev. Donald Ostrander and Thomas Schwartz. The new members will be elected to serve three years.

Statistical reports from Family Service of Pasadena indicate increasing use of their agency by Sierra Madre residents. The function of the local board is to raise funds to pay the part of the fees that some clients are unable to meet.

Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae to Meet

Alpha Chi Omega senior alumnae of the Pasadena area will meet for dessert at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 7, in the home of Mrs. Lowell Martin, 710 Grand avenue, South Pasadena. Colored slides of Greece will be shown.

All clothes should be checked for stains at the time soiled laundry is sorted. Stains should be removed before clothes are washed or they may be "set" by the washing process.

Talk on Indians Announced for Fellowship Meeting

Mrs. Alice Schumacher of the Indian Center in Los Angeles will be the speaker at the regular monthly luncheon-meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church at 12:30 Tuesday, April 7.

Mrs. Schumacher will tell about American Indians who have left the reservations and their success in adjusting to and being assimilated into community life. The luncheon-and representatives of an architect's office were shown numerous sites and spent time considering each. A site in the area mentioned was decided as being the most satisfactory from the standpoint of the canyon population, centrally located in the school district, away from major boulevard traffic and an ideal site upon which to build with reasonable expenditures for site development.

This bond issue was publicized, worked for by local groups of citizens but was lost. The immediate result was that the seventh and eighth grades were released to Pasadena in order that our school could avoid double sessions and serious overcrowding. Pasadena furnished adequate housing for these students.

Rare Aquatint Exhibition at Huntington

A new exhibition of engravings in the Henry E. Huntington Art Gallery is of special interest this Coronation year. Twelve hand-colored aquatints by the nineteenth century English master, William Daniell, make up the exhibit which is being shown in one of the upper rooms of the gallery. It is a recent gift of the Friends of the Huntington Library.

The scenes, "Select Views of Windsor Castle and the Adjacent Scenery," depict the massive castle which has been chief residence of English sovereigns since William the Conqueror.

The chief purpose of the aquatint engraving is to stimulate a water-color drawing, and in these Windsor Castle views the engraver has succeeded in reproducing on copper much of the quality and atmosphere of an original drawing.

The Daniell aquatints will remain on view through April and May. Hours are from 1 to 4:30 every day except Mondays.

Lions Meet Tonight To Hear Yahnke Talk

The Sierra Madre Lions Club will hold their regular meeting Thursday evening at 7:15 at the Woman's Club. Dr. Ralph Martin, program chairman for the month, stated that the meeting will be favored with a talk by Douglas Yahnke of the General Petroleum Company on the subject of "Semantics, or the Effective Use of Words."

Other clubs report that Yahnke gives a remarkably practical application for people in every walk of life.

Friendship Club to Hear Aileen Owen

The Sierra Madre Friendship Club will meet Monday afternoon at the Sierra Madre Park House at 2:30 o'clock to hear Mrs. Aileen Owen tell about her experiences as a councilor to girls in a large industrial area.

Miss Owen, a Sierra Madrean now retired, is a leader of the Study Group of the Congregational Women's Fellowship. Twenty years of her work was in East Chicago, Indiana, a suburb of Chicago, Illinois.

Tea will be served after the program that is open to the public.

Hospital Guild Elects Officers For Fiscal Year

Mrs. Gordon Luzmoor of Arcadia has been elected president of the Sierra Madre Guild of the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles and Mrs. C. F. Adam and Mrs. Alex Black of Sierra Madre were named treasurer and secretary, respectively.

The election took place at the Guild's March meeting in Mrs. Adam's home, at which time the members worked busily on 40 Easter tray favors for the Hospital's small patients.

There will be two more meetings of the group before the summertime lull. At the next meeting, April 22 at 11 a.m. in Mrs. Black's home, 445 E. Highland, the new president will name her committees for the fiscal year, which begins in September, and tentative plans will be made for a membership increase at that time.

Members take their own sandwiches to the meeting and the hostess serves coffee.

Two other active Guilds in this area are the Monrovia and Pasadena groups. They and the Sierra Madre Guild are among the 36 auxiliaries, guilds and working groups of the famed hospital.

THE APPROACH OF EASTER HAS GIVEN renewed spirit to the Sierra Madre Guild of the Los Angeles Children's Hospital. Meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl "Fritz" Adam, 93 Canon, for an all-day session March 25, the group of 18 women designed and manufactured 45 gay "Bunny Boxes" to be delivered to the Hospital for children's tray favors Sunday. New officers also were elected, with Mrs. Gordon Luzmoor as president. Those who were able to keep the picture date several days later were, from left to right: Mrs. George McRoberts III, Mrs. Carl Adam, guild treasurer, and Mrs. Alexander Black, secretary.

NIGHT BANKING HOURS

The U. S. National Bank will be open Friday nights, effective May 1, according to an announcement by William J. Lloyd, vice president and manager of the Arcadia branch. The Friday banking hours will be from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. The bank will not be open on Saturdays, starting May 2.

A Letter From Athens to the Folks at Home

Virginia Pittinger, wife of Lincoln Pittinger, now on an engineering job in Athens, Greece, writes to The News about the experiences she is sharing with her husband and three children during a year's absence from their home in Sierra Madre.

Outside our home we have the colorful pageantry and ceaseless sound effects of a main highway to Athens and inside we have Calliope! She should be beautiful and tall and brooding—the muse of epic poetry! Fortunately for us she is none of these or we would be without a maid.

Our Calliope is very short and stocky with black hair which she oils freely and keeps bound in a scarf most of the time. Her brown eyes are soft and expressive, but her one real beauty is her feet!

Strange that a woman who has worked as she has all her life—almost never sitting down—should have such dainty, well-formed feet. I know they're all that because, before I bought her working slippers (size 4½) she worked barefoot! And I'm warned that she'll do it again in the summer—slippers or no slippers. She lives in a basement room with one barred window. There, on four hooks, hangs her entire wardrobe. Under her pillow is her big silver crucifix, under the bed her cardboard suitcase, and on the table her tiny ikon, such creams and cosmetics as I have given her and her most precious possession to date—a Montgomery Ward catalog. When I wanted to borrow it the other day she made me promise to return it "avrio" (tomorrow. To explain, she opened to the women's dresses, ran her hand carressingly over the pictures and murmured "Oreo-poli oreo!" Beautiful—so beautiful! Then she looked embarrassed and shoved the book at me. Poor homely, beauty-starved Calliope! She shall have her catalog dress one of these days—import duty or no import duty.

One of the prime subjects for conversation at American Foreign Colony parties is maids—and, according to the self-styled experts, there are no good, honest girls to be had in all of Greece. They rob you blind, they cheat and lie, they do as little as possible, eat you out of house and home and leave you for the first person who comes along offering more drachmaes! The solution—drive them hard, crack down on them, watch them, and always, always suspect them. I nearly choke listening to them, but until I have Calliope for at least six months without mishap I dare not point with pride and affection. The best I can do, at this time is keep my own standard of kindness, understanding and faith in man's inherent goodness. Besides, where is our democratic standard of love, humane consideration and common decency more needed than where their opposites appear most vigorous!

What Use Spying?

If I suspect and bully and spy successfully what will I achieve beyond an adequate police action? I might save myself a handful of coffee and sugar and a few drachmaes. But, if I trust until I learn that my trust is misplaced I have lost nothing but a maid and a few things I can easily replace. Moreover, if, by trusting, I plant the seed of a new standard of conduct—a standard that shall one day bear the fruits of honesty and industry and kindness—if I do this, I have not only lost nothing, I have helped to accomplish a small miracle that may, in the way of miracles, shine far beyond the limits of one lifetime.

Anyway—one solution to this problem of servant dishonesty over here—apart from treating help like human beings—would be to give them a decent wage. Yet we dare not pay more than maximum current salary at the risk of upsetting the whole doggone Greek social structure! For 500,000 Dr. a month, about $33) Calliope does this:

Does All This!

1. Prepares and serves three meals a day in a kitchen your grandmother would have scorned.
2. Does all cleaning with broom, mops, soap, water and rags.
3. Washes, by hand, everything—sheets, jeans, shirts, dresses, everything!
4. Irons—whatever I don't get away from her first (after all—socks!)
5. Baby-sits.

Social Activities

She gets up at 6:30 a.m. and goes to bed at 8:30 or 9 p.m. whenever she finishes in the kitchen. And when she reluctantly took one day off last month, she came back with chocolate bars for the kids, and a colander, steel wool, orange squeezer and grater for the kitchen. When I asked her how much she smiled and said "Vassilis!" (the Greek counterpart of Santa Claus). They were Christmas presents! What price beauty—I'll take Calliope!

Our attempts to run the house tandem are unbelievably funny because of the language difficulties. Calliope, our maid, knows less English than I do Greek (that is possible only because she knows no English) so most of our conversations are combinations of my kitchen Greek and pantomime.

Yesterday a man came to the gate and, since I couldn't understand his errand, I called Calliope. Together they tried to tell me that he had eggs for sale at 1,500 Dr. each ($1 for 10). I said that I didn't want any eggs. But he wouldn't go away. Painstakingly he wrote on a piece of paper, "5 eggs—7.500 DR.") I insisted that I not only didn't want 5 eggs, I didn't want any eggs! He still wouldn't go away, so I shrugged my shoulders and went into the house. I heard Calliope say apologetically that Madame didn't understand and I sniffed. I understood all right, but I wasn't going to be talked into buying 1, 5 or 10 eggs that I didn't want.

After half an hour of peering out my window at the little man who wouldn't go away, I began to wonder if I did understand. Usually they are very polite, the Greek vendors. They do not press you when you say no definitely. And then suddenly, from some blessed source came enlightenment. Of course! Calliope had bought 5 eggs one day last week from a vendor and she hadn't been able to pay him because I wasn't home. I fell all over myself in my haste to stop him as, hopelessly, he was turning from the door. Then such shouts of joy and laughter as issued from the three of us! I excused myself and apologized in my best Greek. We shook hands, wished each other Happy New Year—and Greek-American relations were restored once more to a firm foundation.

Fund Drive Starts for Ranch Nursery School; Officers Set

Led by Mrs. Charles E. Cowen, Jr., 3860 Cartwright, whom they elected president last week, a group of parents from the upper and lower Hastings area are joining their interests and energies to bring about this dream of helping the younger children make their adjustments.

The school plans to be patterned after the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School and is to be a school of parent participation, led by a director and having mother helpers.

As in most projects, money is of prime importance. At least $3,000 is needed to open the doors by September. The money is to be raised mainly by social activities and subscriptions to the Sierra Madre News.

Permanent officers of the organization were elected last Thursday at a meeting held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John de G. La Montagne, 3790 Landfair road.

Robert L. Farmer, 1010 Pepperhill drive, is treasurer and legal advisor to the group and Mrs. Ross Burke, 980 Pepperhill drive, heads the ways and means committee. This committee is making plans for a dance, theater party, toy sales and a group of afternoon bridge parties.

Mrs. Joseph H. Cummins, 605 Rim road, is vice-president, and Mrs. John de G. La Montagne is heading the screening of personnel for the school.

Mrs. George M. Lock, 1155 Michillinda, and her equipment committee are visiting other nursery schools and listing the equipment needed. Mrs. Edsel Curry, 1055 Cynthia, is acting as secretary for the organization, keeping record of those interested in working with the group.

Mrs. Lewis J. Ross, 3880 Cartwright, and her committee on enrollment and public relations are working on the details of registration. When a director has been hired, this group will assist with deciding the best age groups for enrollment.

Field P-TA to Sponsor Queen

A queen in the Sierra Madre Country Fair is being sponsored by Eugene Field P-TA.

Young ladies between the ages of 16 and 21 years who would like to enter the contest, and who are residents of Lower Hastings Ranch, are asked to call Robert Buttcane, 3535 Landfair road, CU. 5-1919, before April 15.

According to Mr. Buttcane, with so many beautiful applicants anticipated, the judges expect to have a tough time making a decision for the Field Queen.

Mrs. Barlow Hostess Of Garden Club Meet

The March meeting of the Hastings Ranch Garden Club was held last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emil Barlow, 3735 Canfield road.

Two demonstrations by members of the club comprised the program for the afternoon. Mrs. Bob Vincent gave an excellent demonstration on making cuttings from carnation and chrysanthemum plants, and Mrs. Charles Ayres showed the ladies how flowers and leaves can be dipped in melted wax and then ice water to preserve them for decorations. To further demonstrate their use, she exhibited a cake she had decorated with flowers with an ivy sprig encircling the plate.

A business meeting followed these short talks at which time a vote was taken on changing the hours of the monthly meetings to a more convenient time. The members were given a choice between morning, afternoon as they have been, or evening. Morning meetings, starting at 9:30, won a large majority of the votes.

The next meeting of the club will be held at Mrs. Walter Doty's home, 3515 Landfair road, on Tuesday morning, April 28, at which time a speaker is planned.

Four new members have recently been taken into the group because of vacancies occurring with one of the members having moved away and an increase in membership having been voted by the club. The newest members are: Mmes. Dunbar Burdick, Henry Curwen, Guy Dougherty, and Werner Fend.

Letters Again Urged To Oppose Rezoning

The petition filed by Consolidated Engineering Corporation for rezoning of the property on Sierra Madre Blvd. is still under discussion with the Pasadena Planning Commission, and is to be studied further at their next business meeting on April 14, according to an announcement made by their members this week.

It has been intimated that should the present petition not be granted, a subsequent one would be filed asking for a variance or other rezoning of the property for industrial use. The officers of the various property owners' organizations opposing the initial petition again urged the residents of the adjacent districts this week to write letters to the Pasadena Planning Commission stating their firm opposition to the use of this property in question for industrial purposes under any conditions, whether it be through a zone variance or any change.

"Letters are still a very important weapon in making the members of the Planning Commission realize our definite opposition to industrial use of this property," Mr. Robert Meserve, president of the Hastings Ranch Property Owners' Organization, emphasized. "Let them know our feeling on the matter," he urged.

Daughter of Wrights Celebrates One Year

Valerie Jean Wright, daughter of the Gerald E. Wrights, 3690 Landfair road, celebrated her first birthday recently at a little party in her home.

Four little girls, among them Becky Jenkins from the ranch, helped Valerie celebrate her big day. Also her brother, Steve, attended the party. Among the adults present at Valerie's party were Mrs. Ed Berry, Mrs. Martha Willis and Mrs. Gerald Jenkins.

FOR THEIR APRIL MEETING the Ranch Wrens, social woman's club of lower Hastings Ranch, are planning an especially festive luncheon to be held at Padua Hills next Wednesday. Mrs. Ray Lindman, member, purchases one of the first tickets from Mrs. Robert Smallman, president, as Mrs. Ray Stiff and Mrs. John Baker pause in their perusal of the Theatre program of the Spanish play 'En El Mes de Mayo,' which the ladies will attend during the afternoon. Unable to appear at Mrs. Smallman's home when the picture was taken was Mrs. Edgar Flentie, active in plans for the luncheon.

Mrs. Minnie B. Graves Joins Family in Texas

Mrs. Minnie B. Graves of 3810 Cartwright left last weekend for a six-week stay in Texas. Part of her time will be spent with her daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fairchild, Carol Ann and Beverly, in their Dallas home. Also on the schedule is a visit in Huntsville with another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Sprayberry, Billy and Shirley.

Prior to leaving, Mrs. Graves entertained the members of the Sewing Club, a philanthropic group at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club. Those attending the affair were Mrs. W. L. Rhodes, Mrs. Charles E. Louk, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. Vern Eppard, Mrs. Ora Olsen, Mrs. Fern E. Niedringhaus, Mrs. M. H. Harris, Mrs. Grace Tabahak, Mrs. Parks, Mrs. Elizabeth Turner, Mrs. J. Earl Gossard and Mrs. Al L. Pruitt.

Mrs. Graves was the guest of honor at a surprise going-away party given by Mrs. Gordon K. Wright, 1075 Valley View. Among the well-wishers present were Mrs. William Teier, Mrs. Al L. Pruitt, Mrs. William Heller, Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Clifford R. Voges, Mrs. F. Rex Stine and Mrs. William Spalding.

Dr. Flentie Gives Talk At Ranch Wren Meet

The monthly meeting of the Ranch Wrens was held last Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Simpson, 3780 Fairmeade Road.

Dr. Edgar H. Flentie gave an intensely interesting talk on the subject of "Tumors" and showed a movie and slides to illustrate his discussion on that phase of medicine in which he is interested. Since Mrs. Flentie is a member of the club, Dr. Flentie agreed to talk to the ladies and give them some interesting facts on the subject—the incidence of tumors, their possible known causes, and their detection.

Following an informal question and answer period, a short business meeting was held to discuss plans for the luncheon meeting at Padua Hills on April 8.

More than 30 members and their guests attended the meeting.

Jimmy Colet of 1100 Hastings Ranch Road recently celebrated his eleventh birthday with a luncheon in the Terrace Room at Hinshaw's. Those joining him for the good time were Robert Laws, Walter Tenner, Harry Schultz, Ronnie Kremiller and Ronnie Snow.

Monty Montana put on a show at Eugene Fields School. His horse, Rex, as well as four other stage horses, took part in his show, as did a gentleman he calls his stage driver. In addition to rope tricks, Monty told the students how to guide a horse with reins. Rex finished off the show with some tricks.

Eugene Field School had a kite tournament recently. The divisions were made up of the largest, smallest, highest flier, greatest distance, best decorated, most original, and the best dancing kite.

The members of the Parish Council of Our Lady of Assumption Church will have their regular monthly meeting Wednesday, April 8, at 8:15 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Glynn, 3820 Greenhill road.

Preceding the business meeting, there will be a word picture of "Life in the interior of Africa." The lecture will be given by one of the White Fathers, the order of priests that do missionary work in Africa.

Mrs. William I. Simpson, program chairman, extends a welcome to anyone interested in attending the meeting.

Facts of Life Growth . . .

It doesn't take a wise man to know that Sierra Madre is growing, but it may take wise men to know what to do about it. Everything seems to be expanding, from private enterprise to zoning laws—everything, that is, except the structure of the city itself.

We have the same police force (with pay as low as $1.25 per hour), the same city staffs at equally low wages, the same lack of proper fire equipment (one of the hoses was in bad shape in that big fire recently)—and, worst of all, too many of us have the same attitude as a people that we've had for years.

What is our attitude? Well, most of us came to Sierra Madre because we liked its village atmosphere and its natural, beautiful surroundings. We didn't move here to become involved in civic problems or to organize a Chamber of Commerce. One of our reasons for coming here was "to get away from that sort of thing."

Ironically enough, that's why other people keep coming to Sierra Madre, and the more they do the less they have of what they came for—so far as the "wide open spaces" are concerned.

Shall we put up a gate at the edge of town? Build a fence? Call out the guards?

No, we can't stop people from coming to Sierra Madre any more than we can pass a law against people getting married and having babies to prevent our having to build more schools. But it's quite possible we could have twice the population here and still have the most attractive town on earth—IF we prepare for it.

The first step in that direction, we believe, is that each one of us must be willing to do his share, whether it means more taxes to build more schools, decent wages to city employees, the organizing of a Chamber of Commerce, or the construction of a swimming pool.

The facts of life in this case seem to be the facts of life growth—and it's time we faced them.

HIS THOUGHT FOR SOMEBODY ELSE turned into an invention that is attracting nationwide attention, so now Inventor Eddie Cook, 129 W. Grandview, has already been applauded on television for what he calls "The Armstrong Reader." Named after his friend in the iron lung, Douglas Armstrong of Los Angeles, the electrically operated device shown over Armstrong's head allows him to read from pages that unroll before his eyes with the slightest movement of his neck or twitch of a cheek muscle. It will bring relief from tedious hours to thousands of iron lung dwellers.

Invention to Help a Friend Brings Inventor Big Ovation

Eddie Cook is a Sierra Madrean who, having invented a machine to help somebody else, recently found himself applauded on television as he demonstrated the invention that shows every indication of bringing him fame and fortune.

Cook, who lives with his wife and three children at 129 W. Grandview, is a special laboratory mechanic for General Petroleum Corporation in Vernon, and the story of his invention begins with the comradeship he shared with four friends also employed by General Petroleum, on fishing trips in the vicinity of Chantry Flats for the last seven years.

Seven years, that is, for all of them except Douglas Armstrong of Los Angeles, who couldn't make it last summer—because he was paralyzed by polio.

Armstrong, two of his four children, and his wife, had been stricken, along with several others in the immediate neighborhood. All the others have recovered, but Armstrong is still in an iron lung at Ranchos Los Amigos, near Downey, where he is able to move only by rolling his head from side to side.

During one of their Sunday visits, February 15, the four other fishermen — Cook, Victor Thompson, a glass blower, Ted Baker, and Paul Faust, both chemical engineers — asked Armstrong how things were going.

"Everything's just fine," he said, "but I sure do hate to think of all the time I'm wasting. If only I could read, it would make all the difference in the world."

Having spent seven months without being able to move except for the slight rolling of his head, Armstrong felt he was doomed to a long, wasteful period if he couldn't at least improve his mind. All his life he had wanted to complete his study toward a doctor's degree in bacteriology.

Book reading, however, required the turning of pages, and the only machine he knew of for a man in an iron lung was, at the price of almost $700, beyond his reach financially. Nor could he afford a private nurse to stand by, merely for the turning of each page.

"You guys dream up something, if you can," Armstrong said, before his friends left.

After talking it over with his friends during the drive homeward, Cook said that as he reached his own house the idea for an invention to answer Armstrong's needs became suddenly blueprinted in his mind "as if it were a gift from God."

During his evening and week-end hours, he developed a unit that can roughly be described as containing two piano rolls suspended over the head of a reclining figure, operated electrically by a slight pressure either in the patient's pillow or his hand. After dismantling two copies of one particular publication, the pages can be pasted in proper sequence facing the patient to make a complete book.

When tested at Ranchos Los Amigos two weeks ago, other paralyzed patients were able to operate the "roller reader" merely by flexing the muscles in their necks. Cook says.

Having tested it over Armstrong's iron lung, Cook tells of safety measures he has perfected that prevented its approximate weight of 45 pounds from falling, or being knocked, onto the patient; nor can it produce a dangerous electrical current even if water is spilled, he says.

Response to the new machine, which Cook believes will cost not much more than $125, has been so sudden and from so many fields other than polio wards that its inventor has had to adopt a very conservative reply to questions concerning its future manufacture — and profits.

With all the sincerity in the world, Eddie Cooks says simply: "I only hope it will make a lot of people who don't have the normal advantages a lot happier than they might be otherwise."

He appears as an earnest thinking individual who, having invented something to help his fellowman, is about to find the world beating a path to his door. For what he has invented is far superior to a "better mouse-trap."

Juniors Elect Mrs. Damon to Presidency

A Sierra Madrean, Mrs. Deane L. Damon, 83 Cypress court, was unanimously elected president of the Woman's Club of South Pasadena Juniors at its annual meeting recently. She will be installed June 9.

Mrs. Damon has served on the Juniors' board for two years prior to her election to the presidency, as second vice-president and as third vice-president. One member of Mrs. Damon's new board, Mrs. Lewis Ross, second vice-president for the new year, is a Hastings Ranch resident.

Others on the board include: Mrs. Roy Jones, Montebello, first vice-president; Mrs. Patrick Fagan of South Pasadena, third vice-president; Mrs. Walter Lipke of San Marino, recording secretary; Mrs. Albert A. Hunt of South Pasadena, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Peter Probst of South Pasadena, treasurer.

TREASURE TONES PAINT

Paint is one of those items made in all qualities, from very poor to very good. So the buyer has to rely on the reputation of the dealer and the manufacturer.

Don't buy paint merely because it's cheap. Poor paint costs just as much to apply, and has no lasting quality.

We chose to sell Treasure Tones paint, made by Bishop-Conklin, a branch of the highly rated firm of Devoe & Reynolds.

Colorful Treasure Tones are ready to use for every decorating need, inside or out.

You'll save a lot of money in the long run by using Treasure Tones Paint. The price is moderate.

FAMILY SERVICE IN ANNUAL REPORT

Mrs. George Osborn and Mrs. P. R. Woodworth, both of Sierra Madre, recently attended the annual meeting of the Family Service Board in Pasadena, held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Pike, 1475 Vista Circle, Pasadena.

One of the most important items on the agenda was the appearance of Miss Elise de la Fontaine, who gave the annual report concerning the activities of Family Service. It also was announced that Carl Shafer, who addressed the Kiwanians here last Tuesday, will replace Miss Fontaine as executive director May 1.

The last local meeting of the Sierra Madre division of Family Service was March 14, at the home of Mrs. Charles Skutt.

We made an error last week about the Little League conducted in Pasadena. We said that Sierra Madre boys could take part in the league and to report to Victory Park on Saturday. Bill Jack of Sierra Madre called us and told us that we couldn't. Bill is one of the directors of the league and he noticed it right away. So the best I can do is apologize. Next year you might be able to compete.

This week we're going to talk about the Sierra Madre boys that are on the Marshall baseball team. Wilson will have its turn next week.

First, let's start with the Marshall "B" team. There are two fellows, Laury Cavalier and David Kelley. Laury plays shortstop, and is probably the best in that position in the school, if not the city. No, we're not over-rating him a bit. I made a prediction, and I'll stick to it. Laury will be playing professional ball within four years, either here on the coast or in the major leagues!

David is also a fine player, and he is only in the 9th grade. He plays outfield.

On the "A" team we have Dick Bell, Tony Pascoe and Kenny Rhoades. Dick Bell came to Marshall last year and proved himself a fine ballplayer on Marshall "B." He played third base and was famous for his terrific throwing arm.

Another great ballplayer that should rank along with Cavalier is Tony Pascoe. Tony last year played catcher. This year, however, the coach switched him over to left field. He hopes to be a professional ballplayer in the future, and he probably will.

And last but not least is Kenny Rhoades. Kenny is a fine boy and a fine ballplayer, but he just couldn't make first string like the others from Sierra Madre. But he's on the team and is sure to play. (Coach Pappas just doesn't recognize a good ballplayer when he sees one, isn't that right, Kenny?) Anyway, he is going to be on the swimming team!

It was Tom Meany who put tongue in cheek and pen in hand during the 1949 World Series and wrote these words:

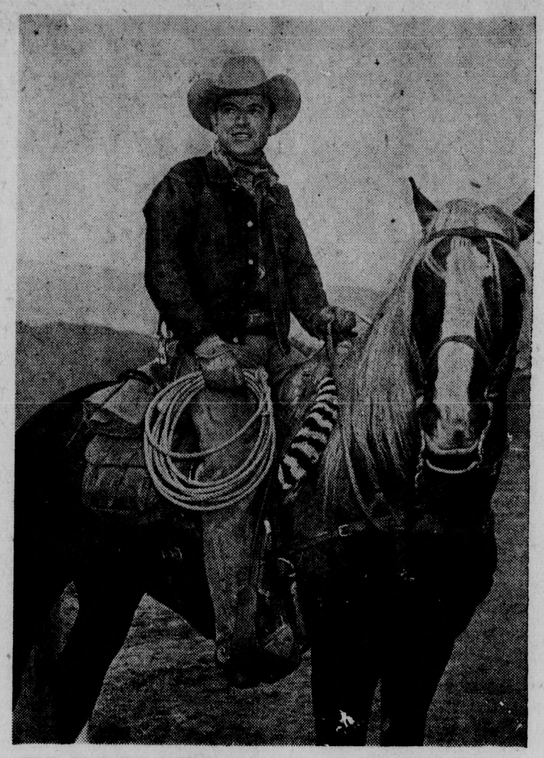

"Tommy Henrich hit a home run for the Yankees to win the opening game of the 1949 season. Tommy Henrich hit a home run to win the pennant for the Yankees in the closing game of the season. Tommy Henrich hit a home run for the Yankees to win the opening game of the World Series.

"What's the matter with the guy? Is he in a rut?"

Final Audubon Show Slated at Muir Apr. 9

The final lecture of the Audubon Sereen Tours Series, sponsored by the Muir College Patron's Association and the Audubon Society, will be presented in the Rufus Mead Auditorium on the college campus Thursday, April 9, at 8 p.m.

"Oddities in Nature" will be presented by Walter H. Shackleton, lecturer - photographer of the National Audubon Society. Shackleton reveals the walking ferns, shooting stars, flying squirrels, and praying mantis along with 50 varied "nature oddities."

'Country Girl' Opens Tonight At Playhouse

Clifford Odets' hit play, "The Country Girl," comes to Pasadena Playhouse this evening at 8:30 o'clock to tell the story of an ex-star and his dramatic attempt to climb back on the nation's marquees, his wife, a girl from the country who believes in him, and his director, who starts him on the return route to mazda-glory.

Odets, the man who created "Golden Boy," "Clash by Night," "The Big Knife," "Rocket to the Moon" and a host of other hits, deals in human frailities and human strength as he tells the poignant story.

Wilton Graff, Eve McVeagh and King Donovan star as the top trio of actor, wife and director.

Under Bobker ben Ali's direction the Playhouse cast also includes Richard Vath, Gayne Sullivan, Elaine Marcus, James Creson and George Truitt.

Norway Films By Hjordis Parker Apr 8

The breathtaking beauty of Norway will be shown in color film when Hjordis Parker, native of that country and a resident of Sierra Madre, presents "Saga of Modern Norway" at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium Wednesday evening, April 8. Some of her pictures show for the first time Norwegian Boy and Girl Scouts on ski camping trips, skiing in the dream world of Ibsen's Peer Gynt, and the Red Cross rescue ski corps in action.

Hjordis Parker

She also shows Oslo and American students attending the university. Norse architecture is traced through the development of the use of fire. Lumbermen work in the icy rivers to free the logs and the merchant marine carrier passengers and freight to distant lands.

Mrs. Parker filmed her sea plane trip to the arctic where she lived with the Lapps to photograph this strange nomadic people, wandering with their reindeer across the top of Europe. Other sequences include a polar ship unloading its cargo of seal and bear skins, farms that have been handed down from father to son for hundreds of years, the major fjords, mountains and lakes.

Reservations for the film are available at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium.

COMMUNITY DANCE AT CIVIC

By popular demand, La Verne Boyer and his orchestra will play a return engagement at the Pasadena Community Dance the evening of April 4. Doors at the Civic open at 8:15, with dancing at 8:30 o'clock.

Sierra Madreans Invited to Yearly Concert Subscription

Through Mrs. Herbert L. Brown, local campaign chairman, an invitation is extended to every Sierra Madre resident to become a member of the Foothill Community Concert Association which sponsors a yearly artists course.

Membership in the association is opened only once during the year and during one week only. This season the annual solicitation is to be held the week of April 6 with local headquarters at the Pangborn Realty Co., 344 West Sierra Madre boulevard.

Working with Mrs. Brown in taking memberships is a group of prominent citizens including Mrs. Noren Eaton, Mrs. Daniel L. D'Arcy, both members of the association's board of directors; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skutt, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morgan, Mrs. P. R. Woodworth, Mrs. Stanley Fish, Mrs. Ione Ward, Miss Jessie Sprague and Mrs. Hugh Colvin.

These Sierra Madre sponsors will endeavor to contact all friends and neighbors, but the task is a difficult one and hence residents desiring memberships are urged not to wait for a call but to reverse the procedure and contact a worker.

Dues in the association are but six dollars for adults and three dollars for students. This fee entitles members to attend all concerts presented by the association and all other community concerts throughout the Southland with no other expense whatsoever. Concerts are given in the auditorium of Monrovia-Duarte High School, just a few minutes drive from here and where there is ample free parking.

This season so far there have been four events including Metropolitan Opera star Charles Kullman appearing in joint recital with the famed Men of Song, celebrated soprano Dorothy Warenskjold, the newly-formed concert company of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, and world-renowned violinist Tossy Spivakovsky. The fifth and closing attraction comes during campaign week on Tuesday, April 7, when the brilliant Philharmonic Quartet will be heard.

Mrs. Brown today emphasized that citizens must sign up during next week as on Saturday, April 11, the roster is closed for another year and no tickets to the events are ever available at the door. This procedure is the community concert "organized audience" plan under which there is an established fund and no financial risk to sponsoring communities.

The budget, which will be the total of membership fees on April 11, determines the artists who can be booked and the year's program will be scheduled late that afternoon with the Mmes. Brown, Eaton and D'Arcy present to assist with the bookings.

Additional information may be secured by calling CU. 5-0201 during the day and CU. 5-0139 evenings.

Don't try to keep up with the Joneses. Take it easy and meet them coming back.

$25,000 REWARD FOR DYNAMITERS!

Southern California Edison Company offers to pay a reward of $25,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who dynamited the company's 220,000 volt transmission towers on Monday night, March 23, and Tuesday morning, March 24.

The two transmission towers which were dynamited Monday night, March 23, at 9:13½ and 9:14½ p.m., are located on the company's Chino-Pisgah 220,000 volt transmission lines (Mile 229, Tower #1) approximately four miles east of the town of Chino. These lines carry electric energy to the Edison system from Hoover Dam.

The towers dynamited Tuesday morning, March 24, at 7:36 a.m. are located on the company's Magunden-Saugus 220,000 volt transmission lines (Mile 183, Tower #1) approximately twenty-seven miles north of Saugus and three miles east of Gorman. The Edison Magunden-Saugus transmission lines carry electric energy from the company's Big Creek generating plants in the High Sierra.

If you have any information concerning this sabotage, telephone the company collect at once, Los Angeles—MIchigan 7111.

KEEP SUGAR IN COVERED CONTAINER

Sugar should be kept in a covered container. If it becomes lumpy, it should be sifted before using. The lumps can be pulverized with a rolling pin. If sugar hardens into one big mass, it can be restored by heating in the oven while wrapped in a damp, cotton cloth. Then pound and roll with a rolling pin.

HOW DRY WE ARE!

Every day that it doesn't rain (if it doesn't rain before this gets to press), a new record for winter drought is established in many areas of the state. And every section could use more of the damp stuff. Where is that nice foul weather we used to have?

for their own organizations.

According to Dan D'Arcy, chairman for the Community Fair, who introduced Overly, the event is scheduled for June, when the weather is favorable, and will be at an excellent location, corner of Michillinda) and Foothill boulevards, where ample off-street parking will be available.

Representatives of adjoining communities who have participated in previous fairs, indicated their intentions to enter the Sierra Madre event, according to Sam Simpson, local Lion.

Chairman of the Queen Contest is Ralph "Pappy" Welch.

With the Community Fair operated by local organizations, with local residents entering the contests and exhibits, with food for booths purchased from local merchants, and proceeds going to the new pool, the scheduled event promises to be a real Community Fair.

Band Develops With Addition Of Musicians

Five new musicians have joined the Sierra Madre Band. Les Monsen, of Sierra Madre, who plays trombone; Blanchard Jones, Altadena, on clarinet; Walter Sobolewski, of Monrovia, who was a professional musician in Chicago dance bands, on trumpet; F. C. Taubitz of East Pasadena, trombone; and Den Mann of Pasadena, playing E flat clarinet.

The band rehearses every Thursday evening from 7:30 to 10, in the auditorium of the Sierra Madre City School. The newly formed group is seeking more musicians. Recently they played for the Sierra Madre PTA, and the next public performance is scheduled for the Arcadia Parent - Teacher Association.

Miss Marie Oliva, who conducts the band, has announced that several instruments are available on loan to experienced players, including snare drum, alto horn, two baritones, and tuba.

Mrs. Matilda Smith, music director at City School, is the assistant conductor.
